

PROCESS FOR PRODUCING PHENOL

ABSTRACT

[0030] A process for producing phenol, the process comprising contacting with an acid-catalyst a feed stream comprising cumene hydroperoxide, phenol and acetone, to produce a phenol product, wherein the molar ratio of phenol to acetone in the feed stream and in the phenol product is greater than 1:1